

MOVE AHEAD.

Grow your business with us.

The life of a freight broker agent can feel like a well-orchestrated juggling act — keeping loads, customers, and carriers moving. Working with a freight brokerage who supports you at every turn makes it easier to keep all those balls in the air.

At Nationwide Logistics, we understand the challenges agents face and we commit to being always on it. We know that you need a partner who is responsive, who thrives in constant motion, and whose experience you can leverage at any given moment to provide a solution that makes sense.

With Nationwide Logistics you can count on:

- A true partnership. We work shoulder-to-shoulder with agents, providing a service-forward mindset, responding to your needs in real time, and calling you by name.
- Unlimited earning potential. We have the processes in place for you to reach the goals you've set for your entrepreneurial business — all while offering an industry-leading commission structure, reliable weekly pay, and no hidden fees or non-competes.
- Unparalleled support. Our team is made up of experienced leaders in 24/7 logistics who can take administrative functions such as carrier onboarding, custom billing, collections and claims management off your hands.
- Diverse services. We offer freight services in U.S. and Canada for oversized, heavy haul, van, flatbed, intermodal, temperature controlled, produce, LTL, rail, and DOD.
- 98% retention rate. Our clients stay with us because we respect their people and their time — their two most important assets.
